

DAY 1 THURSDAY 8 SEPTEMBER 2022

Institutional Research in a Changing HE World: shifting student engagement

10:00 - 10:10

Introduction and welcome to day 1

Co-Chairs of the HEIR Network Planning Group:

- + Matt Hiely-Rayner, Director of Strategic Planning & Change, Bucks New University
- + Rachel Bowden, Head of Evaluation and Policy Department, University of Brighton

10:10 - 11:10

Keynote: Title TBC

- + Mary Curnock Cook CBE, Chair of the UPP Foundation Student Futures Commission, Independent education expert and former CE of UCAS.

11:10 - 11:20

Break

11:20 - 12:10

Invited speakers parallel sessions and Q & A themes:

- + Students as Partners in Institutional Research
 - + Transitions to Higher Education- How can IR help institutions enhance student transitions
 - + Evolving models of data analytics for understanding student engagement - a pre to post Covid exploration
- Speakers TBC

12:15 - 12:30

Plenary - key messages from invited speaker sessions

12:30 - 13:30

Poster Session - with lightning talks

DAY 2 FRIDAY 9 SEPTEMBER 2022

Institutional Research in a Changing HE World: emerging new data and IR themes

10:00 - 10:10

Introduction and welcome to Day 2

Co-Chairs of the HEIR Network Planning Group

- + Matt Hiely-Rayner, Director of Strategic Planning & Change, Bucks New University
- + Rachel Bowden, Head of Evaluation and Policy Department, University of Brighton

10:10 - 11:10

Keynote: Shifting Patterns of Governance in Higher Education

- + Professor Peter Scott, Professor of Higher Education Studies, UCL and Scotland's first Commissioner for Fair Access

11:10 - 11:20

Break

11:20 - 12:10

Invited speakers parallel sessions and Q & A themes:

- + Policy Influences
 - + Use of data to impact differential outcomes
 - + Measuring Educational Gain
- Speakers TBC

12:15 - 12:30

Plenary - key messages from invited speaker sessions

12:30 - 12:35

Thanks and formal close

12:35 - 13:00

Informal Networking session

Hosted by HEIR Network Planning Group